Utilize Drop Everything and Read (DEAR) Program for 20 minutes of uninterrupted reading per day (attachments)

DEAR
Drop Everything and Read!

Drop Everything and Read (DEAR) time is a time that is set aside daily for independent reading. Reading logs help you remember and reflect on what you have read, help you have intelligent conversations and expand your vocabulary. Your minimum goal should be at least 20 minutes per day. Ask your advisor to help you find an interesting book that you can carry around.

Utilize prescriptive Journal Writing for 20 minutes using these writing prompts (attachment)

There is much evidence to support the fact that journal writing will help students to develop their skills of explanation, improve their writing, and solve problems in interesting ways. Give every child a notebook to serve as a journal.

1. Create your own holiday. What would you celebrate? How could you get others to join in the fun?
2. Write about something your parents always tell you.
3. If you could end any one problem in the world, what would it be? Why?
4. What does it feel like to be wrong?
5. Write about three values that are important to your family.
6. Could you ever be a vegetarian? Why or why not?
7. If someone wrote a book about you, what would it be about?
8. What does it mean to be a feminist?
9. Write a poem about your favorite activity or hobby.
10. Write about the best vacation you ever took.
11. Write about a time when someone helped you. How did you feel afterward?
12. Do you prefer to read books that are parts of series or standalone books? Why?
13. Would you rather jump out of a plane or go scuba diving? Why?
14. Write a poem about love—what does it mean?
15. What is your favorite TV show? What do you like about it?
16. How would your best friend describe you?
17. What is your favorite way to be creative?
18. Are you the last person to speak up in a group or the first to have an idea? Why do you think that is?
19. Why do we give respect to senior citizens and people who are our elders?
20. Write a poem about your classroom.
21. Would you rather paint or sculpt? Why?
22. How would you like to help in our community?
23. If you could throw a party for all your friends, what would it be like? Where would you hold it? What would you do? Who would come?
24. What is your favorite thing to do at recess on a nice day?

25. Write about the most important thing in your life.
26. Write a poem about spring flowers.
27. If you could live inside any video game, which would you choose? Why?
28. What is your favorite thing about yourself?
29. Write about a goal you accomplished recently. How did you feel when you finished it?
30. Write about a rule at school or at home that you don't like. How would you replace it?

Sample Independent Learning Projects (attachment)

Independent learning projects can be a great option for some students to share their creativity in an area that interests them.

100 Project Ideas for Independent Learning

Independent learning projects can be intimidating for teachers and students. Even at the elementary level they can be a valuable tool to have in your teacher's toolbox. Start out small and have your student(s) complete a simple project that takes 15 – 30 min. Once you get comfortable you can assign more involved projects to students who need a special challenge.
